

RUSSIANS CLAIM THAT THIRTY THOUSAND JAPANESE WERE KILLED IN BATTLE

MIKADO'S MEN BLOWN UP WITH DYNAMITE

BUTCHERS ARE WILLING TO COMPROMISE.

Packers Preparing for a Long Siege
—Strikers Gather in Crowds
But Maintain Order.

CHICAGO July 13.—With no sign of weakening on either side the only ray of hope in the butchers' strike situation today was the possibility that arbitration might intervene to prevent a labor war fraught with suffering and privation to the strike and heavy loss to the packers.

Nor is the effect of the strike on the nine cities where the fight will be centered. The consuming public will bear a large share of the burden in higher prices for meats. Reports already have come from various cities that prices of the product have been raised. The advance too was said to be a forerunner of others if the conflict continued long.

THOUSANDS OUT

In addition to the 50,000 employees already on strike upwards of 30,000 more are involved indirectly and a lot of them will probably be made idle before night.

In addition to all the slaughtering plants being tied up the strike affects branch industries where such articles as butterine, soap, buttons and combs are manufactured. The canning department where beans, soups and all kinds of meats are put up are also hit. The employees have gone out in a body.

Forty thousand persons approximately are employed in the big packing-houses in Chicago and this number already has been reduced one-half. The effect of the strike upon the mechanical and other department is declared will increase this number of unemployed in Chicago before the end of the week to nearly 10,000.

WHAT STRIKERS SAY

The strikers declare that they will be willing to consider any reasonable proposition submitted from the other side.

The detail of police at the stock yards has been increased in number and all night the officers patrolled the stock district and the streets adjacent to the various plants.

There was considerable speculation as to whether the packing house industries would go out on a sympathy strike. George Golden, business agent of the union, said that it is not a meeting of the union is in doubt.

CROWDS GATHER

A crowd of men and boys running more than 600 for the most part striking employees gathered in squads today about the entrance to the stock yards and discussed the situation. In general the great good nature prevailed. The only activity specially noticeable in the yards was the deserted-looking buildings of the Swift and Armour plants. In the packing department of the Swift establishment a number of men were at work while at Armour's a gang was busy loading provisions into a string of refrigerator cars.

Workmen were also busy tearing up the rails of the Chicago Junction Railroad within the yards and the spacing of the old rails with new ones. This fact was taken by some to indicate an expectation by the railroad officials that the resumption of traffic will be delayed for several days at least.

MEAT FAMINE

With a seeming certainty of a meat famine should the strike last more than a week, both the pickets and the strike leaders took a serious view of the situation today. Each side thoughtfully considered the arbitration counsel of escape from the entanglement. Indeed predictions were ventured that an armistice might be arranged within twenty-four hours. Such optimism however was received with a good deal of incredulity.

President Donnelly of the Butcher Workmen's union expressed regret that the packers offer to arbitrate had not been made earlier. Had it been the strike might have been averted.

The delay of the packers to a free arbitration he said is responsible for the strike. They did not make known their position until after the unions had declared the strike. It will be an expensive war but apparently it will have to be fought out. We are strong—stronger, strange as it may seem, than the packers. We have the whole country to draw upon for us-

STORY OF JAPANESE REVERSE AS TOLD BY RUSSIANS.

ADMIRAL SKRYDLOFF, NAVAL CHIEF AT VLADIVOSTOK AND COMMANDER OF THE VLADIVOSTOK SQUADRON

ST. PETERSBURG July 13 5:35 p. m.—This city was thrown into a fever of excitement this afternoon by the news that the Japanese had failed in an assault on the fortress of Port Arthur on Sunday night having been repulsed with a loss said to reach 30,000.

REPORT IS TRUE

ST. PETERSBURG July 13.—An official communication from the Russian general staff says:

A leading to information derived from Japanese sources and received by Admiral Alexieff's military staff the Japanese attacked the Russian position at Port Arthur during the night of July 10th. They were repulsed with enormous losses. It is difficult to calculate even approximately the number of Japanese casualties which mounted it is said to the immense figure of 30,000.

EXTRAS PUBLISHED

The original report had reached St. Petersburg last night in the form of a newspaper dispatch from Mukden and was received with incredulity. But at about noon when Vice Admiral Alexieff telegraphed the news to the general staff it created a tremendous impression. It was immediately transmitted to the official messenger and a few minutes afterwards the newshave were racing through the streets shouting the news with the tidings. The boys were especially excited by the news.

GENERAL STAFF

The members of the general staff do not offer explanations of what Admiral Alexieff means by Japanese sources, but they declare that the Vice admiral not have officially reported such important news unless it had reached him from sources entirely worthy of reliance.

At the same time they say his report should be accepted with reserve pending the receipt of more definite news. In support of the report however they point out that it is quite coincident with the second attempt of Admiral Fogo's torpedo boat destroyers to creep into the harbor.

It is true that Fogo does report on a land attack but this is not in his province.

MAY BE POSSIBLE

The loss of 30,000 of the besiegers in an attack against fortified positions in support of the report however they point out that it is quite coincident with the second attempt of Admiral Fogo's torpedo boat destroyers to creep into the harbor.

especially if the mines were exploded under the Russian lines. The general staff also had information that the Japanese had occupied Takushan Hill three miles northeast of the harbor. It is also stated that the Japanese were unable to hold the position.

If the report of the loss of 30,000 Japanese is confirmed General Nodzu's army is in desperate straits and General Stoessel will not fail to take advantage of such a reverse and follow it up.

The Japanese have not yet attacked Ta Toke Kiao.

SKIRMISHES

A dispatch from Lieutenant General Silharoff describes a series of skirmishes east of Kail Chou. The troops belonging to General Kuroki's army are meeting with resistance at every step from the Russian rear guard along the Su Yen road.

Grand Duke Sergius Mikhailovich an artillery expert is going to Manchuria in August.

The mobilization of two more artillery corps is expected shortly.

RUSSIANS MAKE ATTACK IN THE DARK AND BLOODY BATTLE ENSUES.

AT THE FRONT WITH GENERAL KUROKI'S FORCES

OSAKA, Korea, July 13.—The brief and disastrous attempt of the Russians to overwhelm the small Japanese forces which guarded the entrance to the 30 Tien pass was a bloody affair. The Japanese troops again exhibited their resourcefulness and courage and the Russians again hrew away many lives. The losses cannot be ascertained until the battlefield has been searched.

DRIVING THE ENEMY

The Japanese are still driving the enemy up the valley. The correspondent of the Associated Press saw enough to justify the estimate that the Russians had more than 60 men killed or wounded and that the Japanese casualties probably amounted to sixty. The Russians left thirty dead in front of and in the trenches where the attack began. At his point they had an equal number of men severely wounded and the Japanese took several prisoners and captured one hundred rifles. The Russians were seen carrying away two officers who had been either killed or wounded.

No Tien pass opens up on funnel-shaped slope which rises for a quarter of a mile from the valley and which is flanked by hills. Thirty Japanese were quartered in a Chinese house near the bottom of the hill and two companies of Japanese soldiers were in a trench a hundred yards long located on the summit of the hill which commanded the approach. Two other companies of soldiers slept near this trench.

LIKE SLAUGHTER HOUSE.

Between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning in complete darkness and with a heavy fog enshrouding the hills, two battalions of the Tenth and Twenty-fourth East Siberian regiments together with three hundred cavalrymen approached the Japanese position.

MAY BE FAMINE IN MEAT

New York Will Have to Face a Difficult Situation.

Five Thousand Men Went on a Strike This Morning.

NEW YORK July 13.—When the hour for opening the big packing plants in this city had arrived the strike of the butchers and meat handlers inaugurated in the West yesterday was on in this city and before many hours it was estimated that 5,000 men had quit work. The men that went out were butchers, packers, carriers and cutters, members of the Greater New York locals of the amalgamated meat cutters and butchers' workmen of America.

The men made no demonstration. From the managers of the beef plants it was learned that the beef supply is very low some of the dealers having only enough to last fifteen minutes when the daily purchasers arrived.

Within a few hours the price of beef had gone up 2 and 3 cents a pound with indications of advancing further in another few hours. None of the dealers had a supply to last longer than a week and it is the opinion among the meat men that if the strike continues a meat famine is inevitable. There is a possibility of a sympathetic strike of the Butcher's Association. These men supply the retail stores.

The strike has also affected the local abattoirs. At work at the places is a standstill. Homer D. C. H. national secretary of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen's Union will take charge of the strike in this city.

The seriousness of the situation from the employers' standpoint was shown in a statement issued by the manager for Swift & Co. He said:

We have not advanced the price of anything for the simple reason that we haven't anything to advance the price on. I am willing to pay 14 cents for a car load of beef if I can get it but I cannot get it.

One of the managers for Armour & Co. said: We have a good deal of meat on hand at present and are supplied for two weeks. I don't know how long the strike is likely to last but a meat famine will inevitably result if the differences are not settled within two weeks.

EPPINGER AGAIN IN COURT

Counsel Was Not Ready to Make Defense Today.

SAN FRANCISCO July 13.—Jacob Eppinger appeared in the Superior Court today when the case against him was called.

John McCall former weigher for the warehouse of Eppinger & Co. at Port Costa admitted that until a few months before the suspension of the firm he had marked all of the various lots of wheat in ink but that when they began to put up option lots he was instructed to mark the several piles of grain with chalk. At the conclusion of his testimony the defense made several motions to strike out various portions of the testimony given by witnesses for the State during the progress of the trial. After all of these had been denied, an

HE FELL TO HIS DEATH.

Samuel Boyd Falls Through Window While Asleep.

He Was a Well Known Member of the Butchers Union.

Samuel Boyd a butcher, 74 years old, fell to his death shortly after midnight from the second story of his home at 59 Ninth street.

When picked up he was conscious but soon passed into a deep sleep. He was in that condition when he was in an ambulance to the City and County Hospital he passed away.

Dr. W. W. Kegan who had been called to attend the unfortunate man discovered that Boyd had sustained a fracture of one arm and three ribs and internal injuries which preclude recovery. It was deemed advisable however to have the injured man taken to the hospital so that he might be made as comfortable as possible during his last moments. But death came upon him on the way.

FELL THROUGH WINDOW

The deceased was in the habit of leaving the windows of his home open at night and using his bed and shutters from the top of the room in the temperature renders that necessary for comfort.

It is supposed that the breeze about midnight became so strong as to tempt Boyd to close his window and that he arose from his bed at about half asleep. While engaged in pulling down the sash of the window it is believed that he slipped and shot forward through the open sash falling to the pavement of the building of the outside and hence to the sidewalk.

LOW SASH

The injured man was unable to explain how he had been injured. It is known that he often used to sit up under the circumstances as above described. The window at which he was engaged was peculiarly high and it is a coincidence that kind of a fall on which the sash rested when closed is only about a foot above the floor of the apartment.

BUTCHER BY TRADE

Boyd was a butcher and a member of the Butcher's Union. To the time of the recent outbreak of the members of the Butcher's Union by a local retail dealer the deceased had been an employee of Fred Beck. While the strike was in progress he abandoned the union and went to work in Vincent's market on Washington street. He worked there yesterday and it was from there he went to his home last evening at the close of his day's work.

Boyd was a married man and the father of two children but for the past two years he had been living apart from his family. His home was kept for him by a niece of Mrs. Russell. Boyd's wife is a niece of Katz of the firm of Katz & Sons butchers California Market San Francisco.

The inquest will be held tomorrow night. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

SUES THE STATE.

SAN FRANCISCO July 13.—A suit identical with the action entered by the Union Trust Company to compel over $200,000 from the State claimed to be due on Montgomery Avenue bonds was filed today by Max Frank who seeks to recover $20,000. The first due of fifty five Montgomery Avenue bonds with legal interest to the date of maturity (Jan. 1, 1907) which amounts to $20,000 and interest on the $20,000 at 7 per cent from the last date.

GRAIN MEN FAIL

CHICAGO July 13.—Ernest L. Jones & Co. grain commission men, with 45 branches in Iowa, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Ohio and Indiana, went into the hands of a receiver today. Assets $30,000 liabilities $10,000.

NO ADVANCE

PHILADELPHIA July 13.—As a result of the butchers strike there has been an advance of from 10 to 12 cents a pound in the wholesale price of meats in this city.

LITTLE CHANGE IN STOCK MARKET PRICES. AFFECTED.

PACKERS SAY NORMAL CONDITIONS WILL SOON BE RESTORED.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co., was asked as to the probable effect of the strike upon prices of meats throughout the country and regarding the stocks on hand. He said:

"It is too early to say definitely. I do not expect that there will be any serious scarcity in the supply of meats. We have some men working in all of our departments and are shipping products freely. Prices will not be materially advanced. I believe a normal condition of affairs will be speedily restored. In any event, the supply of fresh meats throughout the country is sufficient to last fifteen or twenty days and there is enough cured meats—hams, bacon, etc.—to last six months."

"I think," said J. P. Lyman, president of the National Packing Company, which includes the Hammond, Anglo-American and Continental companies, "that the stock on hand is sufficient to avert a so-called famine for three weeks. I don't see why there should be any material change in prices, but the natural tendency will be for a little advance."

Arthur Meeker of Armour & Co. said:

"We have a week or ten days' supply of meats on hand here, at branch houses and en route, and we are slaughtering and operating our packing plants, but on a reduced scale. Temporarily prices will be somewhat higher."

By noon each packing-house in the stock yards, it was claimed, had men at work. The strikers standing about the entrances to the plants make no demand. All competent-appearing applicants are at once hired and put to work.

BUTCHERS ARE WILLING.

houses again today and the lot was expressed that they would continue to do so as the supply of fresh meat became nearer exhausted.

Edward Cudahy, of the Cudahy Packing Company, said his plant had taken no consideration of an early resumption and that everything at present was at a standstill. He did not believe anything would be done for several days.

The closing of the packing houses had the effect of throwing a great number of men out of work who were not directly employed at the packing plants. These include railroad men, stock yard employees and others whose employer depended on the packing house business to sustain their own business interests.

Everything was quiet throughout the city of South Omaha today, the policy of the men being to prevent any disturbance. None of the strikers went near the packing plants and no attempt was made to disturb the men who are caring for the stocks of fresh meat in the coolers.

NO INCREASE.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 11.—Retail dealers say there will be no immediate increase in the price of meats in this city as a result of the packing housemen's strike, at all. In spite of this there was a small advance today at retail shops. Two of the local packing houses last affected by the recent food have supplied on hand sufficient stock to supply the local trade for a month. One of these houses, which bought liberally at the stock yards today, is killing on a limited scale, and will attempt to supply certain outside trade also. The four other plants have supplies that will last the local trade two or three days.

NEW ENGLAND WILL BE SHORT.

BOSTON, July 13.—New England provision interests are preparing to meet an expected shortage of Western beef as a result of the strike of the butchers and packers. In this city beef dealers are making arrangements to slaughter in abattoirs near the city, to which cattle will be brought in a short time from New England, New York and near by States. The meat supply was short before the strike was called, according to the meat exporters, and wholesale prices already have advanced from $2 to $3 a hundredweight. Retail prices were advanced 1 cent a pound today and will be advanced tomorrow and the next day, the dealers say, unless the strike is settled.

One of the large firms involved in the Chicago strike operates a big packing house in eastern Maine for the export trade, and it is understood that the output will be turned into the domestic market.

WILL TRY TO HAVE ARBITRATION.

DENVER, Colo., July 13.—While prices of meats may be advanced in consequence of the strike at Eastern packing houses, no shortage in the supply is anticipated as local packing houses can meet the demand. There are 750 men employed in the Denver packing houses, but they are not affiliated with the amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers Union.

"According to the outlook now, I scarcely think Denver packers will be affected by the strike," said Henry Gebhart, president of the Colorado Packing and Provision Company. "In my opinion the trouble will last but a short time. I am almost certain there will be no marked advance in prices at this end of the line."

MINISTER ARRIVES.

NEW YORK, July 13.—General A. M. Lamson, United States Minister to Ecuador, arrived here today on the Ecuador Alliance, from Colon.

FARMERS WILL SUFFER BECAUSE OF THE BIG STRIKE.

ST. LOUIS, July 13.—There has not yet been an increase in the price of meat as a result of the strike of the union butchers and meat cutters in the packing houses of St. Louis and East St. Louis.

The packing houses report reserving stocks for three to four days' supply and the majority of the retailers have on hand a supply for the same period. The live stock market is affected greatly by the strike, as packers are buying sparingly or not at all.

The East St. Louis packing houses affected by the strike are running with small forces today.

In St. Louis, the union employees of the St. Louis dressed Beef and Provision Company, the only St. Louis packing house affected by the strike, went out today. The company continues to work but with a small force and in common with all the other packing houses affected, is drawing on its reserve stock to fill orders.

GOMPERS TALKS.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 13.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, addressed the delegates to the International Longshoremen and Marine Transport Workers Association convention today. He denounced Governor Peabody of Colorado for his course in the miners' trouble and also said that the system of injunctions was wrong. He said that the American capitalists were Chinese-izing American labor.

RUSSIANS MAKE AN ATTACK IN THE DARK.

They surrounded the pickets and outposts in the house and gained a position from which to rush the trench. Several Russian companies were so disposed that they could attempt a flanking movement on both the Japanese right and left.

When the fighting began the building where the outposts were quartered became a slaughter house.

The Japanese, aroused from their sleep by the enemy, seized their swords and bayonets to resist the attack. The Russians were at such close quarters with the Japanese that it was impossible for the latter to use their rifles.

IN THE TRENCH.

The first fighting in the trench and in front of the trench was hand to hand and the Japanese who ran out to man the trench were but half clothed. The first Russian onslaught was repelled but the Russians charged twice again within half an hour.

The remained of the Japanese regiment, however, to which the outposts and the companies at the trench belonged, re-enforced their comrades and began to drive the Russians back. As soon as it was sufficiently light to distinguish the enemy, two hours after the beginning of the fight, the Japanese forced the Russians to retreat one mile down the valley. The trench and its approaches or the hillside were thickly covered with dead and wounded men. Blood-spattered stones and grass everywhere testified to the hotness of the fighting.

BURYING THE DEAD.

Chinese stretcher bearers, impassive under dropping bullets, were collecting the wounded and carrying them to an improvised hospital in a roadside temple, where they were laid out in rows under huge painted and blasted gods. Japanese details, with trenching spades were burying the dead where they fell, and Japanese soldiers were bringing water to their own and Russian wounded and impartially giving the wounded men cigarettes.

The firing continued during the afternoon, but gradually the sounds grew more distant, indicating that the Russians were still retreating.

STORY OF THE JAPANESE REVERSE

Everything was quiet here today.

GENERAL FOCK MAKES ATTACK.

MUKDEN, July 12.—(Delayed in transmission.)—A dispatch received here from Port Arthur says that General Fock attacked the Japanese right flank July 5 and drove the Japanese from their position. The Russian cavalry advanced as far as Nan Ga Pass.

The Japanese are landing troops at Sino Ping Tao, about midway between Port Arthur and Port Dainy, on the east coast of the Liao Tung peninsula.

The utmost confidence is felt at Port Arthur of the ability of the garrison to hold out.

JAPANESE TELLS OF THEIR LOSS.

LONDON, July 13.—A dispatch to the Japanese Legation from Tokyo today announces that General Oku reports that in the fighting leading to the occupation of Kai Chou the Japanese casualties from July 5 to July 7 were four men killed and twenty wounded. The casualties of the Japanese July 8 and July 9 were about 450 men killed or wounded.

TWENTY KILLED IN FIGHT.

OFFICERS MURDER SOCIALISTS IN A SERVIAN TOWN.

BELGRADE, Servia, July 13.—A serious fight between socialists and army officers took place yesterday in the square of Kragujevats, a garrison town. The socialists were annoyed at the attitude of the officers toward civilians and attacked the officers, who were noisily celebrating the King's birthday. The officers used their arms and it is reported that twenty men were killed during the fight. The officials only acknowledged that a few persons were wounded, some of them fatally.

RUSSIAN RELIEF FOR THE JEWS.

LONDON, July 13.—Lord Rothschild informed the Associated Press today that he had reason to believe that Russia was endeavoring to float another foreign loan. With reference to the suggestion that Russia might attempt to float an international loan, Lord Rothschild said he did not believe it could be taken by the home market unless the latter arranged with foreign banks to take it off their hands. Russian official circles in London, however, say they have no knowledge of any effect on their part of the Government to float a loan.

The Government has no need of money at this time as it has resources to carry on the war for a long period.

With reference to the report that the Jewish bankers decline to grant a loan to Russia unless the Russian Jews are given the same rights and privileges as other Russian subjects, the officials said Interior Minister Von Plehwa was considering measures for the relief of the Jews. This, however, had no connection with the loan, but was solely in execution of the Emperor's Ukase of January, 1903, contemplating granting further liberty to the people of the empire.

CANDIDATE IS UNDER ARREST.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 13.—William P. Scott, candidate for President of the United States on the National Liberty party ticket, was arrested today on a charge of the sale of liquor.

Several months ago Scott, who runs a saloon and summer garden at Bensenville, was convicted of conducting a disorderly place, and his fine and costs amounted to $400. He paid $250 and was given time to pay the balance.

More than 200 letters went from Judge Parker in the first outgoing mail, most of them replies to letters and telegrams of congratulation. More than 200 arrived in the first incoming mail and every mail since has showed a marked increase over the one before.

The following telegram was received: "Muskegon, Mich., July 13.—Hon. Alton B. Parker, Racine, N. Y.: In an election held here today, the first in the United States after your nomination, Muskegon, claims for the Republicans, won Democratic. This is the first of the campaign, and is considered a fair test. The Indian Territory is on fire with an unconquerable Democratic zeal."

NO MARKET FOR THEIR CATTLE.

OMAHA, Neb., July 13.—Ten cars of cattle and five cars of hogs were received at the Union stockyards today, but there was no market. General Manager Kingston said that this stock came from shipper who had not been notified of the strike and there would probably be no receipts tomorrow.

NO INCREASE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—The strike of Eastern packing house employees will not affect the price of cured meats here unless it should be of long duration, the supply on hand being considered equal to the demand for a year. The strike is not expected to influence the Pacific Coast market for fresh meat, which is supplied from local sources.

MANY DESTITUTE IN MARYLAND TOWN.

MILLINGTON, Maryland, July 13.—Two hundred persons in this town are destitute as the result of a fire that destroyed 13 dwellings and 17 places of business. Loss $150,000, with practically no insurance.

STRIKERS FIRM.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 13.—The striking butchers were paid off today and the packing companies have given out the word that all applicants will be put to work.

The strikers are standing firm. The engineers at the Swift plant, who went out last night, have returned to work. They have made a demand for higher wages, but the packers have not acted upon it.

WANT MORE MEN.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 13.—The local officers of the leading meat companies have received word to hire men in this city to fill the places of the striking employees of the packing houses in Chicago and other Western cities. At the offices of Armour & Co. it was announced today that they wanted to hire 2500 men at once, and they stated that they would pay from $2.50 to $3 per day for the work.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following marriage licenses were issued by the County Clerk today:

August Steinkamp, S. F. .... 42
Sarah Cooper, S. F. .... 38
Eugene Smith, S. F. .... 21

HEARST'S PAPERS FOR PARKER.

EDITOR WILL SUPPORT DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR PRESIDENT.

ESOPUS, N. Y., July 13.—Rosemont, the home of Judge Alton B. Parker, for the first time today began to show outward signs of the coming of the campaign. The lodge house at the gate is being arranged for use as the campaign office and a special telephone line, which is to be used from now on.

More than 200 letters went from Judge Parker in the first outgoing mail, most of them replies to letters and telegrams of congratulation. More than 200 arrived in the first incoming mail and every mail since has showed a marked increase over the one before.

The following telegram was received: "Muskegon, Mich., July 13.—Hon. Alton B. Parker, Racine, N. Judge Parker today received notification from William R. Hearst that he is to have the support of the Hearst newspapers. He refused to say whether or not he had received word from William J. Bryan. Whether former President Cleveland is to make any speeches in Judge Parker's case is not known, but it is understood that the Judge has had an intimation from Mr. Cleveland of his willingness to participate to a limited extent in the campaign.

Regarding the date for the formal notification of the candidates there is still no definite information available.

SINGULAR PEOPLE.

A hunter of big game in Africa gives a description of natives whom he found there, the Waiwais. "These natives," he says, "live in the swamps, their staple article of diet being fish and flour made from the seed of the water lily, although during the rains they grow patches of cassava root and sweet potatoes. They are very low down in the scale of humanity and have a bad reputation among tribes living in the high ground, whose reputation they uphold during our visit. We engaged several Waiwais as carriers, but they only came to see what they could steal. One day I shot a red buck in the high ground and left two Waiwais to carry it in while I went after a harebeest, but I never saw either man or buck again. It was no use following them into the swamps, as they had every inch of the ground and water. They had small canoes hidden everywhere, and immediately they crossed a stream they sunk the canoe again where they alone knew where to find it. Our boys were afraid to follow them, so they used poisoned arrows, and sometimes set poisoned stakes in the tracks leading to their haunts."

In the cities of Japan women are seen going about the streets with long, narrow pieces of cotton stuff, in which they invite other women to put a few stitches. On each piece of cloth are a thousand black dots, and when each dot has had a thread passed through it by a different woman the stuff is believed to have power to protect the wearer from all danger in war. Very often a little crowd of eager women gathers in the streets round some one who is anxious to obtain the necessary stitches for a husband, a son or a sweet heart. These protections are against harm to the soldiers in Manchuria.

In Vat di Rossi, Italy, the serpent is a traditional terror, and the place is celebrated for a curious religious custom known as the rise of the snake. On Ascension day the priest solemnly immures a harmless water snake in a huge antiques basin, dug up on Monte Bruno. The mountaineers believe that by reason of this ceremony all the other snakes that infest the country will perish.

Evening and Piazza Cloaks.

For these useful and indispensable wraps, taffetas and light cloths are used. In taffeta they are trimmed profusely with shirred ruchings, puffs and ruffles of the same material, and often combined with chiffon to match. They are unlined. Embroidered taffeta buttons are used as ornaments. The more ruchings, ruffles and puffs the more fetching the garment. When made of cloth, lace is used, but they are often trimmed with taffeta ruchings, ruffles and puffs of the same color. Very often they are of blue, black, light tan, cream and red. So flexible is fashion that for the moment white is considered passe for these garments.

For country wear, the very loose three-quarter jacket made of bright red or green colored serge is not only very attractive but also very comfortable, especially for cool evenings and driving. These jackets are ornamented with silver or gilt buttons, and the collar faced with velvet to match.

For traveling and outing gowns, light weight chevrons, serges and mohairs are the materials used. Chevrons are in lighter weight than ever before and are especially adaptable for pleated skirts. In serges the finest and closest weaves are selected, being most appropriate for tailor made dresses. Mohairs, when of very fine quality, trimmed with silk and braids, make very smart outing gowns.

Bathing dresses are more attractive than ever. Very often they are of black silk, and mohair pleated and elaborately trimmed with braids. The collars are usually of contrasting colors. White or red silk collars are used on black silk or mohair dresses, and give a smart note to the dress. Serges in blue, red and white are also much used, and are decidedly practical.

TRANSPORT ARRIVES.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—The United States Army transport Dix arrived from Seattle today.

The Dix has come to take on a large cargo of live stock for the Philippines.

ODDITIES.

J. B. Brodie, in charge of an English school has inaugurated a system of "pleasant lessons" to which his pupils have taken very readily. # HE MUST STAND SUSPENSION.

CAPTAIN ALBERTS WILL HAVE TO REMAIN OUT SIXTY DAYS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Captain John Berningham, United States Supervising Inspector for the first district, gave a decision today refusing to interfere in the matter of the suspension of C. Alberts, master of the Santa Cruz, which struck a reef off Wheeler Island on May 8, 1904, while running at full speed through the fog.

Captain Alberts had been suspended for sixty days for proceeding on his course without taking soundings after warning signal had been heard.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 13.—Today's rain covered the entire North-west. Conditions are such as to greatly disturb the grain trade.

PRICES ADVANCED.

CLEVELAND, O., July 13.—Wholesale prices of all fresh meats advanced today. The retailers, however, added two cents a pound to their selling prices.

That fashion is subject to change we all know, but the changes take place so gradually that we become very easily accustomed to them. Writes the Paris correspondent of Le Bon Ton. For the present the sloping and "square" leg of mutton shoulder effects are both equally fashionable. The latest creations from some of the most renowned dressmakers of Paris are all made with the sloping shoulder; while others, equally well-known, are making the leg of mutton square shoulder effect with the draped corsage fitting very tight around the waist. With the latter style the very full skirt is worn. Undoubtedly this very new style will hold its own for a short time, but just at present the sloping shoulder and the blouse corsage are in favor, and very pretty and becoming they are, too.

SEQUOIA CLUB'S CHAMPION CASEY IS DEAD.

RAFAEL WILL FORMER LEADER IN HANDBALL SUCCUMBS TO CANCER IN BROOKLYN.

An attractive card has been prepared by the Sequoia Club of this city for Tuesday evening, July 26th. There will be several boxing contests, the principal of which is a fifteen round engagement between Frank Rafael and Joe Angeli. They are to weigh in at 135 pounds at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Two preliminaries have been arranged for. One is between Dick Hyland and Bobby Johnson and is scheduled as a ten round bout. It is believed that this will be a lively fight. This will be Hyland's first appearance in the professional ring and Johnson not being by any means easy, the match should be a swift one from start to finish. The first preliminary will be between two local exponents of the art but they have not yet been signed. This will be a ten-round go also.

It will be remembered that the Hanlon-Nelson fight is scheduled for the 29th of this month, while a license has been granted the San Francisco Athletic Club for an amateur mill in that city on the 22d. Thus the two fights will be between two local exponents of the art with amusement during the latter part of this month. There has been a dearth of boxing during the past month and the advent of the sequoia mills mentioned is hailed with delight by many in the sporting fraternity.

The San Francisco Club's program is to be given at Woodward's Pavilion on July 22d and the card is arranged to be the real thing. Young Choychick of the Star Club, one of the greatest amateur fighters of recent days, will meet Jim Sweeney of the City Front Club. They will both weigh in at 135. Two well known boys, Mike Syntz and Joe Podesta will fight, weighing in at 130. Syntz has come out of sixteen battles with victory perching on his banner. Belmont and Cairns of the Olympic Club will meet at 120 and the same may be said of Dick Hyland and Jack McDonald. This will be Hyland's final amateur appearance.

The light heavy-weight amateur champion of the Olympics, Harry Chester, will meet George Curry of the Lincoln Club, and this will doubtless be an extremely lively contest. A claimant to the Amateur championship of Victoria, B. C. Jim Hill, will have an opportunity of giving an example of his skill when he meets Harry Tenny of the Southside Club. John Crow, the bantam weight champion will do battle with Harry McLean of the San Francisco Club. The fighting will commence at 8:30 sharp and the seven contests arranged for ought to result in some lively talking.

LOWERED HIS OWN RECORD.

F. E. Stanley of Newton, Mass., has lowered his own figures in auto hill climbing. A day or two ago he broke the record by making the ascent of Mt. Washington in an auto in 31 minutes 15 seconds, breaking the previous record by 17 minutes 42 seconds. Yesterday he made the ascent in 25 minutes 12 1/2 seconds, thus breaking his own record by nearly three minutes. His average speed was a little over 17 1/2 miles an hour.

WISH TO FIGHT YOUNG CORBETT

NELSON AND HANLON BOTH DESIRE TO CHALLENGE HIM AFTER THEIR ENCOUNTER.

If the declarations of the men in the rival training camps of Lakeside and Alameda can be taken seriously, it is probable that whatever the result of the mill between Hanlon and Nelson, a challenge will be presented to Young Corbett. Eddie Hanlon and Battling Nelson are equally confident in fact that each is planning future events in advance of the decision. It is certain enough that the winner in this contest will be entitled to a club challenge and as that gentleman insists that he will keep his agreement with Jimmy Britt, there seems to be no particular reason why the meeting should not occur. That it would be a big drawing card and that much blinding would be induced by it, is a conclusion that is not for anyone to dispute. As a September attraction no better fight could be arranged.

The hero of Margaret Horton Potter's new novel, "The Flame-Gatherers," is an Arab Prince of the house of Asra, who is captured in battle by the Rajah of Mendu. (The hero is to be met on Lakeside, and Dick Smiley, her young captain, is working hard to pay for her and to win the girl he loves.)

The Asra must die if love they cherish. Ahalya falls deeply in love with Asra, and the first part of the tale relates their adventures. Asra's fight for her against the Rajah's vizier, Asra gives up his tallies against the curse to win Ahalya, and how it all comes out, is the rest of the story. The action is constant, and the story glows with life and color and charm.

The adventures of Elizabeth in Russia are even more fascinating and picturesque than the same author's "Elizabeth and Her German Garden." Elizabeth makes a driving trip of eleven days round Germany's largest island, relating her amusing adventures with people and picturing the wondrous place in the light of her sunny personality. But most of all it is the charming and gracious woman herself who comes out in these adventures that gives the book its special attraction.

"The Woman Errant" is partly based on a curious modern social phenomenon—the challenge of the woman driven by the woman errant. Barbara, Evan and the twins, of course, reappear in this new story by the anonymous author of "The People of the Whirlpool." It contains among its characters several young women who to the reader are nearly based on those on which it is partly based, but it has been a great deal discussed nowadays, yet it has been untouched hitherto in fiction. Published by Macmillan & Co., New York.

LITERARY NOTES.
The best of the summer books for a man is "The Merry Anne," by Mr. Samuel Merwin, who wrote that other virile story of business life, "Calumet K," which, by the way, has just appeared in paper covers at 25 cents. "The Merry Anne" is a fleet little schooner that carries her cargo to port on Lakeside, Michigan, and Dick Smiley, her young captain, is working hard to pay for her and to win the girl he loves.

The Asra must die if love they cherish. Ahalya falls deeply in love with Asra, and the first part of the tale relates their adventures. Asra's fight for her against the Rajah's vizier, Asra gives up his tallies against the curse to win Ahalya, and how it all comes out, is the rest of the story. ## EXCITING FINISH JEFFRIES' KNEE ON TRACK. MUCH BETTER.

GREAT DAY'S SPORT FURNISHED AT THE MEADOWS, SEATTLE'S RACING TRACK.

The races at The Meadows, the Seattle race track, furnished a good day's sport yesterday. The following was the result of the various events:

First race, five and a half furlongs—Clydes Bell won, Landseer second, Peter Dale third. Time 1:09 1/2. Second race, four and a half furlongs—Mabel Bates won, Ben Eric second, Lena Letford third. Time 0:55 1/2. Third race, five furlongs—Bumbar won, Priestlike second, Mingo third. Time 1:01.

Fourth race, one mile and one-eighth furlongs—Miles won, Dr. Long second, David E. third. Time 2:03 1/2. Fifth race, mile and one-eighth furlongs—Fondo won, Pepper Sauce second, Up-percut third. Time 1:49 1/2.

Sixth race, six furlongs, Owners' handicap—Doddhead, Orrison and Ora Viva; Mithoon third. Time 1:13 1/2. Ocyrohe and Ora Viva ran a dead heat. It was the first feat of the kind at the local track. The horses put up a remarkable finish, running the last sixteenth absolutely nose and nose. A thousand excited men surged around the judges' stand some cheering for Ora Viva and some for Ocyrohe but when the thought was flashed in the timer's stand on the 1 and 2 boards the crowd accepted the decision as the only one which would have been fairly given. For a few minutes the owners of the horses were inclined to run the heat off, but after a conference they decided to split the purse and all bets were paid on a 50 per cent basis, the books returning the amount of the original wager plus one-half the odds laid against the entry. Ocyrohe was a 2 to 1 shot and Ora Viva went to the post at 4 to 1.

FIRE IN SEATTLE.

At the regatta recently held at Kiel the Igoimar was the only American yacht that raced, and won several events. It is evident that the German Emperor became infatuated with her graceful lines and the manner in which she cut the water and desired a boat for his fleet on the style of the Igoimar.

NEW SHIP LAUNCHED.
SEATTLE, Wash., July 12.—With appropriate ceremonies the new United States army tender Major Evan Thomas was launched at Ballard yesterday. The ship was christened by 6-year-old Natalie Fisher, granddaughter of Major Evan Thomas, who was killed in a battle with Mexico Indians thirty-one years ago and for whom the craft was named.

Many army officers and ladies attended the ceremonies, which were conducted by Captain F. A. Grant. The new boat, which is to be used by the artillery corps in the Puget Sound district, is 105 feet long, 23 feet beam and of 400 horse power.

NEW DUCK PIN RECORD.

OAKLAND BOWLERS MAKE A GOOD SHOWING ON ALLEYS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

A new coast record in duck pins was made on the California alleys in San Francisco last night by P. Johnson and E. A. Spencer of the Oakland Crescent Duck Pin Club. The original record for a three game run by two players was 530. Through their noteworthy performance last night Johnson and Spencer raised the figures to 647.

Their record is:
Johnson—108, 106, 115—total 333.
Spencer—110, 109, 95—total 314.

The championship pair have entered in a two-team tournament on the California alleys. They have bowled 12 games and with but three more to run they are the leaders by a margin of 51 pins. Their friends expect to see them finish handsomely and in a manner that will open the eyes of the experts across the bay. The score for the twelve games that they have already played is 2352 with an average of 193.

DIABLO GOES TO MRS. MURRAY.

Yesterday, at Salem, Oregon, the suit over the possession of the California racing stallion Diablo was decided in favor of Mrs. William Murray of Woodland, and against Samuel Castro of Salem.

To have his leg broken while participating in the Seagate stakes, was the ignominious fate yesterday of Highball, the winner of the American Derby last month. It was not for several hours after the accident that the horse was shot and put out of its misery, the delay of the humane act being caused through the demand of Bud May, the trainer and half owner of the horse, to have insurance representatives present when the bullet was fired.

May declared that the animal was insured for $25,000 but it is not believed that the 15,000 spectators would have been compelled to witness the horrifying spectacle of continuing the horse in its pain for the purpose of making the collection of the money doubly certain had a representative of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals been present.

When Bob Pinkerton asked May to kill the horse he received the reply: "The whole Pinkerton force can not afford to let the colt be insured for $25,000 and this means a whole lot to me. He will stay where he is until the insurance company sends a man here."

Many trainers severely criticized May for sending Highball to the post at all, as in paddock, before the race, the colt clearly favored his leg and went to the barrier so sore that many experts predicted he would break down in the race.

The Seagate was a three-year-old stake and Highball, taking up 126 pounds, gave sixteen to E. R. Thomas' St. Valerian and P. J. Dwyer's Knight Errant. The American Derby winner was the favorite at 11 to 20, while St. Valerian was played at 16 to 5 and Knight Errant closed at 5 to 1. Martin went to the front with Knight Errant and set a smashing pace. Highball followed him and as he reached the lower turn the son of Imp. Ben Strone attempted to run out. Odum tapped him over the head with his whip to keep him in. The colt was "foppy" ever at this early stage. Going up the back stretch, Highball tried to run out all the way. Odum attempted to collar Knight Errant at the beginning of the far turn, but after a short spurt, Highball stopped so quickly that it was seen that he was in serious trouble. Odum at once pulled him up and after a moment, after several attempts to walk him off the track, a man held the broken leg, while half a dozen others pushed him to the infield, where his leg was strapped so that it could not touch the ground. He was then led to his stable.

The other winning horses were Jack McKoon, Merry England, Flammula, The Cricket and Humo. Four favorites lost.

MEET MONROE NEXT MONTH.
Word has been received from Los Angeles that Jeffries' knee has entirely healed and trout as him very little. He says he will be in the ring on the 26th whether the knee is well or not, as he resents the injury to his feelings caused by the statements of Pollock even more than he resents the injury to his person. The champion is telling all his friends to get their money down on him and bet as much as they like as he will be ready for the battle on the date set.

The Yosemite Club having secured its permit for the mill on the August date desired, there seems every prospect of the fight taking place as scheduled.

Munroe may not return to the coast until the last of this month for he has done well in the East. When he returns hard training will be resumed. On August 1st the additional $2500 forfeit money must be posted by both the champion and the challenger and both expect to be here on that date. When that matter is settled Jeffries will go north to Harbor Springs and Munroe will take up his quarters on the beach at Sheehan's.

The championship pair have entered in a two-team tournament on the California alleys. They have bowled 12 games and with but three more to run they are the leaders by a margin of 51 pins. Their friends expect to see them finish handsomely and in a manner that will open the eyes of the experts across the bay. The score for the twelve games that they have already played is 2352 with an average of 193.

DIABLO GOES TO MRS. MURRAY.

Yesterday, at Salem, Oregon, the suit over the possession of the California racing stallion Diablo was decided in favor of Mrs. William Murray of Woodland, and against Samuel Castro of Salem.

To have his leg broken while participating in the Seagate stakes, was the ignominious fate yesterday of Highball, the winner of the American Derby last month. It was not for several hours after the accident that the horse was shot and put out of its misery, the delay of the humane act being caused through the demand of Bud May, the trainer and half owner of the horse, to have insurance representatives present when the bullet was fired.

May declared that the animal was insured for $25,000 but it is not believed that the 15,000 spectators would have been compelled to witness the horrifying spectacle of continuing the horse in its pain for the purpose of making the collection of the money doubly certain had a representative of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals been present.

When Bob Pinkerton asked May to kill the horse he received the reply: "The whole Pinkerton force can not afford to let the colt be insured for $25,000 and this means a whole lot to me. He will stay where he is until the insurance company sends a man here."

Many trainers severely criticized May for sending Highball to the post at all, as in paddock, before the race, the colt clearly favored his leg and went to the barrier so sore that many experts predicted he would break down in the race.

The Seagate was a three-year-old stake and Highball, taking up 126 pounds, gave sixteen to E. R. Thomas' St. Valerian and P. J. Dwyer's Knight Errant. The American Derby winner was the favorite at 11 to 20, while St. Valerian was played at 16 to 5 and Knight Errant closed at 5 to 1. Martin went to the front with Knight Errant and set a smashing pace. Highball followed him and as he reached the lower turn the son of Imp. Ben Strone attempted to run out. Odum tapped him over the head with his whip to keep him in. The colt was "foppy" ever at this early stage. Going up the back stretch, Highball tried to run out all the way. Odum attempted to collar Knight Errant at the beginning of the far turn, but after a short spurt, Highball stopped so quickly that it was seen that he was in serious trouble. Odum at once pulled him up and after a moment, after several attempts to walk him off the track, a man held the broken leg, while half a dozen others pushed him to the infield, where his leg was strapped so that it could not touch the ground. He was then led to his stable.

The other winning horses were Jack McKoon, Merry England, Flammula, The Cricket and Humo. Four favorites lost.

MEET MONROE NEXT MONTH.
Word has been received from Los Angeles that Jeffries' knee has entirely healed and trout as him very little. He says he will be in the ring on the 26th whether the knee is well or not, as he resents the injury to his feelings caused by the statements of Pollock even more than he resents the injury to his person. The champion is telling all his friends to get their money down on him and bet as much as they like as he will be ready for the battle on the date set.

The Yosemite Club having secured its permit for the mill on the August date desired, there seems every prospect of the fight taking place as scheduled.

Munroe may not return to the coast until the last of this month for he has done well in the East. When he returns hard training will be resumed. On August 1st the additional $2500 forfeit money must be posted by both the champion and the challenger and both expect to be here on that date. When that matter is settled Jeffries will go north to Harbor Springs and Munroe will take up his quarters on the beach at Sheehan's.

KAISER LIKES YANKEE YACHT.
Emperor William will give the Herreshof of Bristol, R. I., the contract to build a duplicate of the American racing schooner-yacht Igoimar, which is the property of Morton F. Plant of New York.

At the regatta recently held at Kiel the Igoimar was the only American yacht that raced, and won several events. It is evident that the German Emperor became infatuated with her graceful lines and the manner in which she cut the water and desired a boat for his fleet on the style of the Igoimar.

NEW SHIP LAUNCHED.
SEATTLE, Wash., July 12.—With appropriate ceremonies the new United States army tender Major Evan Thomas was launched at Ballard yesterday. The ship was christened by 6-year-old Natalie Fisher, granddaughter of Major Evan Thomas, who was killed in a battle with Mexico Indians thirty-one years ago and for whom the craft was named.

Many army officers and ladies attended the ceremonies, which were conducted by Captain F. A. Grant. The new boat, which is to be used by the artillery corps in the Puget Sound district, is 105 feet long, 23 feet beam and of 400 horse power.

MRS. CARTER WILL PLAY HERE TONIGHT.

SCENE IN "DU BARRY," ACT III.

"There are some women in history," says Guy de Maupassant, writing about La Du Barry, the central figure of David Belasco's play, which Mrs. Carter will present to this city tonight and tomorrow night at the Madison Square Theatre, "who shine out like stars, and whose memories cannot flicker out, and in every case it will be found that these women live by the power of love alone; by either the love they have given or their capacity for loving when love has been denied them. This quality is always felt; it stirs other hearts in the reading and telling of it until it carries ages down—ever finding a fresh home in the hearts of painters, sculptors and writers."

"La Du Barry was one of these women. Two powerful ingredients go to make up the composition of her character—passion and simple truth. An obscure little milliner, whose parentage was clouded, whose mother was a creature who walked the gardens of the Tuilleries by night—whose ways in the beginning were lowly and humble, La Du Barry, first known as Jeannette Vaubernier, remained to the end unchanged, and unaffected by the pomp which eventually surrounded her, yet by her utter frankness and a simplicity she kept her strange charm over the powerful and weary Louis XV, for whom she made no pretense of real affection."

IN LABOR UNION CIRCLES.
The Retail Clerks' Union met last night and held an enthusiastic meeting. The attendance was very large. Three applications were received and placed on file.

There was some discussion at the previous meeting concerning the advisability of having a business agent for the organization and the matter was laid over. At the next meeting it will probably be decided. It is said that the sentiment is in favor of having a business agent.

Some Summer Suggestions From OSGOOD'S

PRINCE REFUTES STATEMENTS.

SAYS HE IS A HINDOO, SON OF MAHARAJAH OF LAHORE.

Among the articles taken from the bogus Rev. Phillips was a full quart bottle of the liquid that cheers. In signing for the articles the bogus Rev. Phillips objected strongly to signing his name in receiving his articles from the jailer when he was released after having spent his intoxication in one of the prison cells during the night.

Now all of these coincidences came about the police are unable to say. As a matter of fact they think that they are the honor of housing the Hon. W. J. Phillips and invite attention to the statement to bring a handwriting expert with them and inspect the signatures of the reverend gentleman where he signed for the quart bottle of liquor, his credentials to the prohibition convention and the railroad passes.

TO OPEN HEADQUARTERS. CHICAGO, July 13.—J. W. Babcock, Wisconsin, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee in Chicago on his way to Washington and New York, where he will arrange for opening the committee's headquarters in the St. James building next week. The congressional campaign will be entered upon at once, much earlier this year than heretofore, and two or three weeks ahead of the campaign under the auspices of the National Committee.

DIED FROM NATURAL CAUSES. NEW YORK, July 13.—Investigation has dissipated most of the mystery surrounding the death of a young woman found Monday night in the hallway of a flat in East Twenty-ninth street.

She was first supposed to have been murdered because of knife wounds in the throat which appeared to have been the jugular vein.

It was transpired that the cuts were made by a razor or pen knife and that the woman died from natural causes. She has been identified as a character of the streets.

POLICE GIVE THE FACTS.

BELIEVE THEY HAD THE REV. WILEY PHILLIPS IN CUSTODY.

Was the Rev. Wiley J. Phillips drunk or was he the victim of some malicious person's fraud and impersonation? This is the question which the friends of the Rev. Phillips both here and in Los Angeles are asking.

The Rev. Phillips is a large man in both the religious world and in the field of prohibition. He has been looked on as a leader in the cause of temperance and has had a following all over the Pacific Coast. As editor of the Voice, a prohibition paper, published in Los Angeles, he has been a power in the cause of prohibition through the State and his followers are loath to believe that during his recent visit to Oakland he fell from grace to the extent of becoming hopelessly drunk in the city and being escorted to the city prison to sleep off the effects of the liquor he had consumed.

In fact so sure are the good people of Los Angeles that the Rev. Phillips did not get drunk that they are saying that some arch enemy, who feared the power of temperance that the minister exerted, impersonated the reverend gentleman, used his name and then forfeited bail so as to prevent his identity being established and casting stigma on the name of the prohibition editor.

In a letter published in THE TRIBUNE yesterday from the Rev. Frank S. P. Jones of Los Angeles, pastor of the Baptist Church, it is stated that the Rev. Phillips was on his way to the prohibition convention at the time of the alleged arrest which was on June 23 and that even if the Rev. Phillips had visited Oakland that there was nothing to fear from liquor as he had been a total abstainer all of his life.

The letter was strong in denial of any wrong doing on the part of the prohibition delegates and says in so many words that some one evilly inclined impersonated the Rev. Phillips. This statement was made after some one from Los Angeles investigated the visit of the Rev. Phillips to this city.

Those who arrested the Rev. Phillips are of the belief that the investigation was not a thorough one.

On the prison register the bogus Rev. Phillips is described as follows: Wiley J. Phillips, arrested at Tenth and Washington streets by Officer Mulgrew, at 7 o'clock in the evening, weight 140 pounds; native of Virginia, occupation, newspaperman; residence, Los Angeles.

Now comes the strange part of it. If the arrested man was a bogus Rev. Phillips by some accident he had in his possession papers and credentials showing that he was a delegate to the National Prohibition convention. These credentials bore the name of Wiley J. Phillips. Again it is asked that if the arrested man was a bogus Rev. Phillips he had in some mysterious way become possessed of railway passes also bearing the name of Wiley J. Phillips of Los Angeles.

Among the articles taken from the bogus Rev. Phillips was a full quart bottle of the liquid that cheers.

In signing for the articles the bogus Rev. Phillips objected strongly to signing his name in receiving his articles from the jailer when he was released after having spent his intoxication in one of the prison cells during the night.

Now all of these coincidences came about the police are unable to say. As a matter of fact they think that they are the honor of housing the Hon. W. J. Phillips and invite attention to the statement to bring a handwriting expert with them and inspect the signatures of the reverend gentleman where he signed for the quart bottle of liquor, his credentials to the prohibition convention and the railroad passes.

PURE WATER FOR OAKLAND.

HEALTH BOARD FINDS WATER SHEDS IN FIRST CLASS CONDITION.

Members of the Board of Health, Health Officer Von Adelung, Sanitary Inspector Gemmell, City Chemist H. C. Rowe and Dairy Inspector R. A. Archibald yesterday made a tour of the water sheds of the Contra Costa Water Company in the vicinity of Lake Chabot and found everything to be in first class condition, with the exception of one dairy ranch.

The dairy is located on one of the creeks in Moraga Valley, about ten miles from Lake Chabot.

The proprietor was notified that he would have to move his dairy to some other place.

City Chemist Rowe took several samples of the water and will make a chemical analysis of them. His report will not be ready for several days.

Dr. Archibald, in speaking of the condition of the water sheds, said:

"They are in first class condition and the residents of Oakland are receiving good water. There was only one thing, a dairy, that interfered with the securing of a pure supply, and that will be remedied. Otherwise a better supply could not be asked for."

YE LIBERTY STILL DRAWS CROWDS.

The drama "Hearts of Tennessee" was presented at Ye Liberty Theater last night for the second time. A large and appreciative audience enjoyed the play and too much credit cannot be given to its young author, Ullrich B. Collins of Butte county, California.

In its leading parts the play shows remarkable skill in construction, holding the attention of the entire audience. The character of Tom Wilson is especially worthy of notice. It is taken by Russell Reed and is one of the most interesting features of the play. Mr. Reed invests it with youthful earnestness and impulsiveness and his work especially in the love scenes is appreciated by the audience. The play deals with a Spanish love tale and traces back to the days of the Rebellion. An old Southern soldier is wounded in battle and although the wound does not prove fatal yet his arm is a perfect blank until a Northern physician performs an operation which proves successful. The old soldier then prepares to lead a charge against the Spaniards, thinking himself back in the days of the Rebellion. No matter where it is presented this play is sure to win success.

BREED DOES NOT WANT TO BE MAYOR.

In view of the public announcement of Mayor Olney that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for Mayor again several of the politicians have been casting about for a suitable candidate. Among the names that have been mentioned as a possibility is that of City Auditor Breed.

Mr. Breed this morning put an end to all thoughts of his running for that highest political gift in the hands of the voters of the city by stating that he was not and would not be a candidate.

"I have been approached by several of my friends," he said, "with a view of having me launch my candidacy for Mayor. I have told them all that I would not do any such thing. I have no desire for the office."

BREED HAS NOT MADE UP MIND.

City Auditor Breed would not say this morning whether he would hold up the bills of the Contra Costa Water Company for August or not.

"It is a legal question," he said, "and I shall be guided by what my attorneys say. I have not read the decision of Judge Gilbert and do not yet know just how it affects my office. Of course I have been served with the injunction but that is a matter which must be passed on by others. There have been no bills presented to me as yet and of course I am not taking time by the forelock. I will meet the question when it is up to me."

The Water Company has announced that unless the city pays its bills it will be created the same as any other customer.

USES SANDBAG IN DAYTIME.

EMIL JOHNSON LOSES $2 AFTER BEING KNOCKED SENSELESS

While visiting this city yesterday afternoon, Emil Johnson, a sailor residing at 27 Main street, San Francisco, was sandbagged and robbed of $2. The seaman was decoyed into a lodging-house on Broadway by a young man about twenty years of age. While ascending the stairs he was hit presumably with a sandbag and knocked senseless to the floor. When he revived he missed his purse. He had a badly contused head.

Johnson sought police headquarters and informed Detectives Syte and Shorey of the experience which had befallen him. He gave a good description of the thug who made his acquaintance and the police hope to be able to land the daring operator.

Johnson was visiting relatives here and was on his way home. He was taken to the hospital and accompanied him for the purpose of getting a drink. The assault occurred in broad daylight.

TELLS WHY PRESIDENT DID NOT SEE UNION MEN.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., July 13.—Secretary Loeb today explained why he refused the union's delegation from Pennsylvania to go to Saratoga to see the President when they came here yesterday. Mr. Loeb said there is a rule here that no delegation should be received by the President unless they have arranged an appointment with him. This rule has been strictly adhered to during the stay of the President here and it will be enforced during the remainder of the time the President is here for the summer.

PERSONS TALKED ABOUT.

Attorney-General Moody enjoys chiefly for pastimes, first, a trip at sea; second, a good lively baseball game. The Marquis of Bute, just past twenty-three, is the richest bachelor in the House of Peers.

W. J. H. Murat, a machinist of Los Angeles, says that "by rights" he should be on the throne of Naples as descendant of Joachim Murat. Dr. Rebecca Lee Dorsey, of the same city, traces her ancestry back to Robert Bruce, the Scottish hero.

Congressman Burton L. French, of Idaho, the youngest member of the House of Representatives, being only twenty-nine, was married on Tuesday last. In the House he is known as "Uncle Joe's Baby."

Recently the time arrived for G. Stern, the leading jockey of France, to take his term of service in the French army. He made application to enter a cavalry regiment. The authorities at the War Office have refused his request. The reason given is that Stern has only one year to serve, and that it is impossible to form an efficient cavalryman in less than three years! This incident is believed to establish a new record in the working of red-tapeism.

FAMILY AT PLAY AND THIEVES WORK.

RESIDENCE OF DR. M. M. ROWLEY IS THOROUGHLY RANSACKED BY BOYS.

BERKELEY, July 13.—Burglars took advantage of the absence of Dr. M. M. Rowley and family from their residence, 1907 Alcatraz avenue, last night, and thoroughly ransacked the dwelling. The thieves secured but little cash for their pains and for some reason overlooked considerable solid silver and valuable jewelry.

The presence of Mr. and Mrs. Rowley was noticed at a play at Lorn Hall and the robbers must have spent considerable time at their task as the house was in confusion from attic to basement when the Rowleys returned about midnight.

It was found that entrance had been gained through the back door, a skeleton key evidently having been used. A toy safe belonging to the children in the family was taken with the $5 it contained. From Mrs. Rowley's purse $1.50 was abstracted but a small savings bank, belonging to the South Berkeley Bank, containing $4 was left behind. A jimmy was used to pry open a chest but the silver it contained was left untouched. Secretaries and bureau drawers were forced open and the things they contained scattered about the floor in the syst-matic hunt for valuables.

The police have a clew to the identity of the thieves and it is possible that arrests may shortly follow.

"It is my opinion that the robbery was committed by a number of boys," said Mrs. Rowley this morning. "A professional thief would have taken the silver and jewelry which was easily found by the burglars but left behind."

FALLS FROM A CAR AND BREAKS HIS ARM.

MOTOR CARS IN FRANCE.

It appears from the report of Maurice Martin that there were in existence in France on December 31 last 1,310,223 ordinary bicycles, 15,516 motor cycles, and 19,888 motor cars of all kinds. These figures show an increase within three years of 31 per cent for bicycles, 76 per cent for motor cycles and 276 per cent for motor cars.

There were also sold in every 30 inhabitants, one motor cycle for every 1956, and one car for every 1553. The estimated value of the motor cycles is 15,871,200 francs and of the cars 11,130,000, from a nearly $33,000,000. These machines bring into the government a revenue of a quarter of a million francs for the motor cycles and one and three-quarter millions for the cars.

The figures do not include motor cycles and cars exported during the year, which are estimated as being worth 50,000,000 francs. An interesting point brought out is that the number of cars with more than two seats is advancing at a far more rapid rate than the number of those with one or two.

Necessity for a Strong Opposition

There is not much sense in Republican journals representing Bryan as a misused and betrayed leader. Under his leadership the Democratic party became a greater menace to the prosperity of the country than at any time in its history, and Republican journals have constantly adjoined good citizens to abandon it on account of the vicious theories it was led to adopt by the Nebraska orator. Now that Bryan has been repudiated, it is neither honest nor consistent to represent that he is a good man abandoned.

It is a good thing for the country that the Democratic party is once more under a leadership that is sane and conservative. It does not hurt Theodore Roosevelt or the Republican party to tell the truth. It is vicious to falsify, even by implication, in a matter affecting the vital interests of the nation. If the Democratic party be a mob of visionaries and reactionaries full of dangerous tendencies and impregnated with mischievous ideas of national policy it may be the easier for the Republicans to win success at the polls, but it will be all the worse for the Republic. It is not a good thing that the opposition party should represent only organized discontent, a chronic revolt against the social and financial structure. It should not be a constant menace.

The more respectable the opposition is the more respectable the Republican party will be. The higher the aspiration of its rival, the higher note of statesmanship it will strike. Patriotism is not a matter of relative terms or party designations; it represents a quality that touches and animates the individual and the mass regardless of partisan definitions. The best that is in a nation is developed when both the great parties advocating opposing theories of public policy exhibit the highest and best that is in them. A degraded opposition means a corresponding degradation in the practices and ideals of the party in power. A dominant party falls to a low estate when it has only to display superiority over the worst in the opposition.

Parties are emulative. They virtually spur each other on to nobler things and higher aspirations. We see all round us evidences of how the dominance of Bryan deprived the Democratic party of its brightest intellects and its ripest statesmanship. Because the strong men of the Democratic party refused to endorse empirical theories and a charlatan leadership, they did not embrace the economic theories for which the Republican party stands. Thus Bryanism impoverished the Democratic party without enriching the Republican party. It gave the Republican party a temporary accession of strength at the polls, but it did not strengthen the ideas typified by the Republican party. Rather by its own defects did it make the Republican party physically stronger but morally weaker.

The party of Lincoln, Garfield, Blaine, McKinley and Roosevelt has a higher claim to public confidence than the blunders and bad character of its historic opponent. It has a higher mission than resisting mere destructive tendencies and combatting the visionary theories of ill-balanced enthusiasts. It is at its best when it has to face intellect, courage and conscience. Constructive statesmanship does not thrive on opposition to ignorance and empiricism. Therefore the Republican party is purified and elevated in proportion to the extent of the purification and elevation of the opposition. In a constitutional government there must be two parties of character and patriotic zeal if the highest civilization is to be reached and the best fruits of free institutions garnered.

After stating that he is no prophet, Bourke Cockran predicts the election of Judge Parker. The public will require no other assurance that he is not a prophet.

Bryan announces that he will take the stump for Parker. We should think he would take to the woods.

The Stockton Record seems to derive a childish satisfaction from saying uncomplimentary things about Oakland. Most of its observations are pointless, all of them are foolish, and they appear to be prompted by no other motive than the one which actuated the person described by Collier P. Huntington, who painted his rear end when he climbed a greased pole in order to attract the attention of the neighbors.

Parker Promptly Repudiates Hill

It appears after all that David B. Hill is not Judge Parker's political confidante, and was not the judge's authorized spokesman at St. Louis. Under Bryan's close questioning Hill was compelled to admit that he had not consulted with Judge Parker and did not know what his financial views were.

Another evidence that Hill is not in Parker's confidence was given when the platform was agreed upon. Hill was asked if the emasculated platform was acceptable to Judge Parker and replied, "I accept it and I am called Judge Parker's friend."

It was not acceptable to Judge Parker, who promptly amended it by a telegram addressed—not to Hill—but to William F. Sheehan. Now it is given out authoritatively from the Parker household that the judge held no communication of any kind with Hill while the St. Louis convention was in progress. This was done plainly because Hill remained silent in the face of continued accusations that he was in constant communication with the New York candidate. His continued silence has caused him to be subjected to a humiliation in the hour of what seemed a great victory for him. Apparently Judge Parker has decided to end the impression at the outset that he is Hill's candidate.

It was Sheehan not Hill who carried the news from St. Louis to Judge Parker. It is also announced that Sheehan is the judge's choice for chairman of the National Committee. Thus we are beginning to see that it is not Hill, nor August Belmont or whom Parker leans and in whom he confides but the keen-witted Irish-American from Buffalo who used to be Hill's lieutenant and who was elected Lieutenant-Governor on the ticket with the Sage of Wolfroost. It begins to look like politics indeed. Now we can see where the hooks were on Tammany.

From appearances we should judge that the campaign on the Democratic side will be largely a personal one. Judge Parker is no tyro at the game. He got his first lessons from that pastmaster, Smith Weed, and later managed David B. Hill's first campaign for Governor. His political strategy in that campaign landed him on the Supreme bench, which, of course, has kept him out of active politics. But he is picking up his cards and leading trumps like the veteran he is.

Judge Parker is to be commended for his determination to resign his position on the bench the moment he formally accepts the Democratic nomination for the Presidency. It would be unbefitting for the incumbent of a high judicial office to continue on the bench while making an active campaign for a political office, but it would not be unlawful or entirely without precedent. Doubtless political wisdom had its weight in deciding Judge Parker to resign, but the decision is none the less commendatory for all that. The higher the plane on which political campaigns are conducted the higher the standard of American citizenship. It is gratifying that the Democratic candidate respects the dignity of the high office to which he aspires. We believe that the welfare of the Republic demands his defeat, but in the remote contingency of his election there would be some consolation in the knowledge that Judge Parker is a man of honorable impulses and elevated character.

There is certainly going to be enough Presidential tickets to choose from this fall. Besides the regular Republican and Democratic tickets, there is the Prohibition ticket, the Socialist ticket, the Populist ticket and the ticket of the National Negro Liberty party. The women suffragists and the Social Democrats also threaten to put up tickets. This will make a pretty strong field for a race in which all the odds are on one horse. The outcome looks now like a bad second and a lot of also rans.

Groundless Fears of Annexation

Our Alameda friends are unduly exercised about consolidation. Their fear of being gobbled up by Oakland willy nilly is groundless. There is no desire in this city to annex Alameda against the wish of its inhabitants. While THE TRIBUNE has long believed that consolidation is the ultimate destiny of the municipalities congregated on this shore of the bay, it has again and again asserted that the consolidation must come of the free will of the inhabitants of the various towns. We have deprecated the idea of forcible annexation, which is entirely impracticable, as well as undesirable, and in our opinion the citizens of Oakland do not wish to annex Alameda in opposition to the desires of its people. Certainly no legislative scheme to annex our neighbor despite protest would receive sanction in this community. As we understand it, the consolidation propaganda goes no further than an organized effort to convince the general public on this side the bay that it is to the interests of the several municipalities to get together for better government and lower taxes. It is a campaign of education, not a scheme of forcible annexation. Until the Alamedans desire to join with Oakland and Berkeley in creating the greater city—call it Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley or what you may—by voluntary action, they are quite secure of their municipal independence. There is no necessity to legislate against outside interference, and legislating against their own convictions will be futile.

The Great Packing-House Strike

It is deplorable that so many thousands of men should have decided to strike at this time, but if the statements of the striking packing-house employees are correct they are being shamefully treated. They say they were satisfied with a wage scale of 18½ cents an hour, but the packers refused to pay more than 17½ and 15 cents an hour. At 18½ cents an hour a day's pay for ten hours' work would be $1.55, little enough considering the present cost of living. With steady work it would mean a weekly wage of $11.10 or $48.10 a month. But only a few of the packing-house employees received steady work. While they were compelled to be at the call of their employers, they were forced to pass a large proportion of their time in idleness for which they received no pay. Latterly some of the men have been getting in only about thirteen hours' work a week, a miserable pittance of $2.27½ at 17½ cents an hour. This is beyond the limit of human endurance.

It is idle for the packers to contend that they cannot afford to pay better wages. They constitute the most heartless and greedy combine in the United States. Of all the trusts the meat combine is the most grasping and remorseless. Having obtained control of the dressed meat trade, this combine has forced the prices of meat up and the price of cattle, sheep and hogs down. It makes its own buying and selling prices, clinching impartially both producer and consumer. Now it appears that it is clinching the workmen with the same relentless rapacity exhibited in its dealings with the public. Concerns which reap such vast and unfair profits can afford to pay decent wages to their employees. Unfortunately, their policy seems to be to wring the last cent out of the people that they can regardless of sentiments of decency, honesty and humanity. If their operations are not in direct violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, they are criminal from a moral point of view.

In announcing that he will support the St. Louis ticket, Bryan hits it a solar plexus blow on its weak spot—its trust affiliations. The Nebraska saves his party standing at the expense of his consistency, but he has given others an excellent reason for voting against Parker and Davis. The moral effect of his declaration is entirely with Roosevelt.

"COMBINE" AN OLD BRITICISM.
"Combine" as a noun has been supposed to be an Americanism and of very modern date. Not long ago a British Justice approved counsel for using the term. A scholar's research has resulted in finding that "combine," in the sense of "combination" or "conspiracy," was used by one Pokingham in England in 1610.

Hints for the Ladies.

New bread may be cut as easily as stale if the knife be heated in hot water.

Milk kept in a shallow basin will remain sweet for a longer time than if kept in a deep jug.

If a tablespoonful of paraffin be added to the jar of hot water used for washing tiles, it will both cleanse and brighten them.

Before weighing molasses dredge the scale well with flour, for this will prevent the treacle from sticking, and it may be poured off without waste.

To wash a coat remove the steels, then lay the coat on a table or board and scrub with a stiff brush, using a lather made of white soap. Rinse beneath a tap with cold water, pull straight, and allow to dry.

Alum water will restore most faded colors. Brush the faded article thoroughly free from dust, cover it with a layer of castile soap, rinse in clear water, then in alum water, and the color will usually be much brighter than before.

Even when there is cream in the coffee, the stain of it may be removed from silk and other delicate fabrics by brushing the spots with pure glycerin. The glycerin must then be rinsed out in lukewarm water and the spot pressed on the wrong side with a warm iron.

Any cold white fish may be made into an acceptable nut by being treated with a little Newburg. A little white wine, in which cloves and allspice have been steeped, may be added just before the sauce is poured over the fish. It should then simmer till warmed without being boiled.

Poisonous compounds cannot be used to destroy flies without danger, but the following mixture is both effective and safe. Thoroughly mix together one teaspoonful of black pepper and two teaspoonfuls of moist sugar and a little of this in a saucer where flies abound. It is a good plan also to wash the inside of window panes with a weak solution of carbolic acid, for this will prevent flies settling on them.

To clean black walnut furniture, first rub it all over with a piece of old flannel dipped in paraffin. Then, with another piece of flannel or a soft rag, rub it dry, and apply a polish made of equal parts of turpentine, linseed oil and vinegar. These ingredients must be thoroughly shaken together before the compound is used. Rub the mixture well into the article to be cleaned, then leave it for a short time, and finally polish it with a dry cloth.

EMERY IS IN PRISON.

HE WILL TELL HIS STORY TO JUDGE GREENE THIS AFTERNOON.

Claiming that a poetic nature and violent temper are the causes of his present trouble, A. R. Emery, charged by his wife with insanity and attempt on the life of his seventeen-year-old daughter, was brought over from San Francisco at a late hour last night and placed in the detention ward of the Receiving Hospital. He denies that he is insane and made a statement this morning to the effect that he would hate to trade brains with Judge Melvin, the judge having committed him to the Alameda County Jail about six months ago. Emery claims that he was not nearly so insane as his accusers.

Emery says that all of his trouble is caused by his wife, whom he states is in poor health and that times highly distressed him. He attacked his daughter, he admits having gone to see her at the Alameda County Jail Sunday evening, but said that it was to find out what his son is. He says she became frightened at seeing him and fainting, but that he did nothing to cause her to become frightened. Asked as to the graves dug under the Emery home at 615 Eighteenth street, he disclaimed all knowledge that any were dug there.

"I upbraided my wife when I got back from the asylum because she had brought disgrace upon our children," he said this morning. "She knows that I am not crazy, but she wanted to get rid of me and swore to what she knew was not so."

In appearance Emery looks like a Russian. He wears his hair long, and it is said that when it got too much in his way he burns it off. He says he was born in Portland, Me., in 1837. He has six children living and they bear the peculiar names of "C. C.," "A. C.," "O. C.," "I. C.," "L. C." and "E. C." The name Emery not being used at all. "O. C.," one of the Emery boys, has run away several times and has been to the St. Louis Exposition a couple of times since it opened, and it was to find out whether he had returned that Emery claims that he went to see his daughter yesterday. While waiting in his room this morning he helped himself to pass the time by writing the following:

These are my thoughts. As I say to myself, although it is hard to endure, heart of mine we shouldn't worry so. For what it is to be is all for the best and God. He knows what we have missed of the past we couldn't have you know, and what we have met of stormy pain, we cheer up and meet again. We know not what comes tomorrow, so cheer up and forgetting all thy sorrow we have had, let us drive away our fears and wipe away our tears, and have better thoughts all the coming year. A. R. EMERY.

WHEN YOU'VE GOT A RAISE.
There's a lot of satisfaction when you've got a raise in pay.

And you whittle in a happy and self-important way.

You sort of feel like getting down and buckling to your work.

For it's rising now in value and it's worth too much to shirk.

And you feel a little bluer and you hanker for the fray.

Sort of confident and eager—when you've got a raise in pay.

It may be just a little, but it seems to be a little. And you change your figures over and you add 'em with a smile.

A little more to lay away, a little more to lend.

And if you're open-hearted—why, a little more to lend.

And all the rose-lined paths of ease and joy you've hoped some day to win.

Just smile at you as you pass by and seem to say, "Come in."

You spend it ten times over in your mind—but that's the way.

A fellow has of doing when he gets a raise in pay.

Oh, it means you're worth a little more; you've been working hard.

It means you're on the ladder and are leading how to climb.

And you breathe a little deeper than you ever did before.

And you work a little harder and you think a little more.

For work is just a pleasant thing and life is light and gay.

The press bureau organizes with a chief and enough assistants to examine and edit the mass of copy required from the staff of writers employed. Editors, reviews, statistics, opposing party, even poetry, form part of the product of this literature factory to be spread broadcast over the country, some of it printed by the bureau in leaflet and pamphlet to be delivered directly through the medium of the newspaper.

AGAINST CHANGE.

Professor Moses Defends System of Electing Senators.

BERKELEY, July 13.—That the present method of electing United States Senators is the best that could be devised is the opinion of Professor Bernard Moses of the history department of the University, who took considerable time at a summer school lecture yesterday to express himself against the agitation that is being fostered in favor of electing Senators by a direct vote of the people. Besides effecting no material difference

In the character of the Senate the change would be a violation of the spirit of the constitution.

Professor Moore also disagrees with the fashion that has lately been set of instructing the representatives being sent by the people to the houses of Congress or even to conventions, on the ground that the system is a departure from the

These views Professor Moses expressed yesterday before his class in "Government" at the summer session of the University. He said in part:

"The question of electing United States Senators by direct vote of the people has been raised often lately and some attempts have been made to secure an amendment of the constitution. I do not approve of the proposed change, because I think in the end it all amounts to the same thing. We have always been able to trust the men we elect to represent us with the power delegated to them to elect good and efficient Senators. The Senate is always an admirable body, although it often occurs that many of its members are merely rich men. It seems to me that the only way to make the institution would be changed if this one change is made.

"The first step to speak of the habit that has lately sprung up of insisting our delegates to perform certain things for us when they go to Congress or to conduct business for the people is to speak to this government over intended that it should be done. The representatives are elected by the people, and they speak with full power of act and it is not for us to trammel their free agency."

"Professor Moses, in concluding, called attention to the fact that the representatives in vogue in the East, where the people have learned the value of representative government, have been dropping after a while. The West he declared, has not learned that it is making a grave mistake by continual shifting the power of government to the hands of men, so that too much power is wasted.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

REGISTRATION

Office of the County Clerk,
Alameda County, Cal.

NOTICE IS HEREBY given that in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 53 Statutes of 1899, all voters of Alameda County must apply for re-registration in order to be able to vote at the General Election in November, as every name on Great Register was cancelled January 1st, 1904.

Owing to the fact that there is no provision of law providing assistance for the Clerk to register voters, it is IMPORTANT THAT VOTERS SHOULD APPLY FOR REGISTRATION AT ONCE IN ORDER TO EXPEDITE THE WORK.

Such re-registration began on the 1st day of January and will be in progress at all times until forty days preceding the next election in November.

In order to facilitate the work of re-registration, attention is called to the provisions of Section 1097 which reads as follows:

Sec. 1097. No person's name must be entered by the Clerk unless:

1. Upon the production and filing of a certified copy of the judgment of the Superior Court directing such entry to be made.
2. If a naturalized citizen, upon the production of his certificate of naturalization. Whose certificate must be issued ninety days prior to the succeeding election, or upon his affidavit that it is lost and out of his possession, which affidavit must state the place of his nativity and the time and place of his naturalization, together with his affidavit that he has resided in the United States for five years, and in this State for one year next preceding the time of application, and that he would be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election, together with his affidavit that he is a citizen shall have been previously registered as a qualified elector in any of the counties, or cities and counties of this State, his name must not be entered by the Clerk unless he produces a certificate of such registration, issued by the party authorized by law to do so, and a certificate, which certificate shall be prima facie evidence of his naturalization.
3. If born in a foreign country, upon his affidavit that he became a citizen of the United States by virtue of the naturalization of his father while he was residing in the United States, and under the age of twenty-one years, and that he is or would be an elector of the county at the next ensuing election.
4. In other cases, upon the affidavit of the party that he will be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election.

Further notice is hereby given that Affidavits of Registration must be sworn to before the County Clerk or his deputies, and that they can not, owing to the provisions of the new Registration Law, be sworn to before any other officer.

The office of the County Clerk will be, until further notice, open for registration from nine a. m. until five p. m. each day.

JOHN P. COOK,
County Clerk, Alameda County.

TELL THEIR TROUBLES TO THE COURT.

Oakland Girl Sues for Breach of Promise in the North—Many Divorce Cases.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 13.—The Klondike courts have for the first time been appealed to for solace for a wounded heart, suit having been entered in the Territorial Court at Dawson by Miss Laura Robbins for $2000 at which amount she assesses the damage to her heart by reason of the alleged failure of Edward Corners, a miner, to make good his promise of marriage.

The plaintiff is a sister of Captain Clarke Robbins, who raised the steamer Clara Monarch near White Horse about a year ago. She has lived with relatives in Oakland until about two years ago, since which time she has claimed Tacoma as her home. Corners has been working a lay at 74 below on Hunker, and it is believed will have little more than $2000 coming when the clean-up is complete.

Although the rule of the Klondike has been that the man has done the wedding when a marriage proposition is expedited, Corners proves an exception. He denies that he proposed or that he desires to forsake bachelorhood. The community anxiously awaits the production of evidence.

MRS. CLARKE DIVORCED.

Denver society which idolized Harry Corson Clarke and his handsome wife, when they were married six years ago, has been startled by the report from New York that Mrs. Clarke has received a divorce from her active husband on New York's statutory grounds. According to the information, Mr. Clarke became enamored with a pretty chambermaid employed at the Hotel St. Andrew, where the Clarkes were stopping.

Such was the testimony given by Miss Adelaide Deming, the twin sister of Mrs. Clarke. It was while acting in the capacity of a detective that Miss Deming said she found Mr. Clarke paying devoted attention to the chambermaid. His conduct was related in detail and vehemently denied by Mr. Clarke. While the latter denounced them as untrue, he nevertheless made no effort to defend the suit. Accordingly Mrs. Clarke was granted a divorce. The matter of alimony has not been determined.

The rise of Harry Corson Clarke from a struggling thespian was rapid. It was while playing with the James Nell company in San Francisco that he met Alice and Adelaide Deming, daughters of a wealthy retired San Francisco merchant.

After a romantic courtship, Miss Alice and Clarke were married. They went to Denver, where they were lavishly entertained by local society.

This was the turning point in Clarke's career. He organized a company of his own and has been its star ever since.

PARKERS DIVORCED.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Mary L. Parker was granted a divorce from Frederick W. Parker by Judge Trout yesterday on the ground of failure to provide. Alimony was waived. Parker, who resides at New Brunswick, N. J., has rich relatives, and has been in receipt of considerable money from his father. The young couple's marriage took place on March 4, 1897, in Tehama county, Cal. Two years ago she came to California on a visit and Parker declined to send her money to return. Since then her mother, Mrs. Nellie Champlin, has maintained her and her child, Isabel. Parker has stipulated that his wife shall keep the custody of the child for at least four years.

SAYS HE WAS CRUEL.

On the ground of cruelty Emma Johnson Knutsen sued Christian Knutsen for a divorce yesterday. She stated that he is insanely jealous and when enraged he abuses her. She was 16 years old at the time of her marriage to Knutsen. It took place at San Jose on March 8, 1901. Knutsen, who holds a captain's certificate, often told his wife when angry that he would have obtained command of a ship if he had not married her.

DR. KENT SUE.

Dr. R. W. Kent was sued for a divorce yesterday by Josephine Kent, who was married to him on October 24, 1890 and who accuses him of cruelty, she stating that he has a quick temper and an abusive tongue. Judge Graham granted a restraining order to prevent him from disposing of his property at Sonoma, Toulumne county, where he formerly practiced. His realty there yields an income of $100 per month, his wife states. In last April, it is alleged, he broke down the doors at her parents' home, 1711 Church street a few days after the birth of their child, Richard, and used vile and insulting language to her as she lay in bed, thus making her condition worse.

WERE NOT HAPPY.

Charlotte Madden, who sued Henry August Madden for divorce yesterday, stated that they were married by contract on April 26, 1886, and in last February they secured a license and were married by a minister in Oakland. They have two children. In May, 1899, Madden was arrested in San Francisco for cruelty to his wife. She says that he has often abused and beaten her. A few days ago she had to sell her baby buggy to obtain money with which to buy food for herself and her children, though he owns a laundry and a horse and wagon, and has enough income to support his family. He drinks to excess, it is alleged, and spends what he gets in dissipation.

MANY DIVORCES.

James Taber McBean, a plasterer, who has a half interest in a saloon at 22 Chicago avenue, is accused of frequently choking his wife, Bertha McBean, and she wants a divorce from him on the grounds of intemperance and cruelty. They were married in October, 1901. Emma Jacobson applied for a divorce from Isaac Jacobson, he having deserted her soon after their marriage last year.

J. W. Donnell desires a divorce from Mary Donnell, to whom he was married on August 1, 1901, on account of her cruelty. She says that she has him numerous fits of bad temper, and refuses to cook for him or to perform the household duties. They have one child, for whose custody the father asks.

The following divorces have been granted: Archibald W. J. Charman from Mary Charman for desertion; Flora A. Shannon from James E. Shannon for failure to provide, she being allowed $10 a month for the support of her child; George W. Smith from Georgia H. Hamilton for intemperance; Annie Laura Freudenberg from Henry Freudenberg for desertion; David L. Baldwin from Edith M. Baldwin for desertion.

Grace Page granted a divorce from Dr. William M. Page by Judge Graham yesterday for failure to provide, and she was permitted to resume her maiden name, Watkins. He is 30 years old, being about twice her age. When she last heard of him he was at Reno.
